

Payroll

Do you want to spend more time running your business and less time administering it?

The Solution

Remove the administrative burden on your business. Free up valuable management time allowing you to get on and move the business forward.

How does it work?

The payroll solution essentially acts as your payroll manager, devoting time, expertise and resource to ensuring that your employee's salaries are calculated accurately and paid on time.

What does it mean for your business?

Your business has access to qualified professionals.

All employee's wages and salaries are calculated net of National Insurance and any employee benefits and then paid in accordance with the Inland Revenue regulations.

All wages are paid on time using your preferred payment method.

Calculation of PAYE and National Insurance contributions and make payment to the Inland Revenue on your behalf.

Maintenance of employee records for you in relation to statutory sick, maternity, adoption and paternity pay.

End of year payroll returns, such as P35 and P60 forms are completed on your behalf.

What does it cost?

Services are tailored to your business so the fee will depend upon your specific needs. We are happy to provide an indication.
